TO SUBSCRIBERS!

[illegible] authorized to collect subscriptions for the Tribune after Monday, June 28, 1875. The delivery of the paper and collection of subscriptions will be governed accordingly.

Caution! Caution!

HENRY CURRY, NO AGENT.

The subscribers of the Oakland Evening Tribune are cautioned against paying any subscriptions to the Tribune from and after June 28, 1875, to any person excepting HENRY CURRY, who is the only authorized collector for Oakland proper. Neither HENRY CURRY nor any of his [illegible] have any connection with the routes, nor do they in any way control the delivery of the paper. Their receipts will be our [illegible] for money paid over the 28th instant.

Oakland, June 29th, 1875.

[illegible] will speak to the people of Oakland to-night on the political situation. His remarks will be looked forward to as having an important bearing upon the canvass in the interest of the Republican party.

Those persons and papers who have been disposed to ridicule the name of John Todd Lor[illegible] to represent State Attorney General, are respectfully requested to turn their serious attention to the following item, which we find in an exchange:

The Democratic candidate for Attorney General of Ohio is Richard [illegible] Llewellyn Barbour, of 85 [illegible].

The city of Oakland is paying nearly fifty thousand dollars per annum on a debt created mostly by the erection of a few wooden buildings, which are [illegible]. [illegible] would have been but a few years, if the city [illegible]. The county of Alameda is paying [illegible] interest on a debt created for [illegible] Court House and Jail, which a year or two's application of the above interest would build again.

An exchange remarks that the [illegible] of the present style of grasshopper, which is creating all the sensation, is a different breed from that of Kansas [illegible] Mississippi. It says:

It is stated by an [illegible] that the [illegible] of the [illegible] grasshopper [illegible] of the lower [illegible] [illegible] grasshoppers.

This being the fact what remains [illegible] that the people affected by the [illegible] grasshopper [illegible] themselves with [illegible] and proceed at once to [illegible] the [illegible] of these pests? We [illegible] that some simple, practical remedy is found at last for ridding the earth of these accursed pests.

It is [illegible] that the Republican County Central Committee purpose calling a primary for the 31st inst., and a direct nomination the first Monday in August. However, [illegible] nomination may be made, let them be of such character that no exception can be taken by the mass of voters. It [illegible] no room for [illegible] prejudices against the ticket. A [illegible] ticket, while [illegible] straight votes. Voters will know their duty [illegible]. That this has been demonstrated too often in this county for Republicans to misunderstand our meaning.

It is possible that the persistent hammering of the [illegible] the end of convincing the public of the utter baseness of that double-dealing of the [illegible] Fitch & Pickering in publishing two newspapers of different political proclivities for the [illegible] different purposes, may finally have its reward. The article in the morning's Chronicle, entitled "Journalistic Siamese Twins," is a detailed and almost exhaustive [illegible] worthy of [illegible] rightly denounced the [illegible] The Bulletin-Call [illegible] of journalism, is [illegible] to the last degree. It [illegible] defended by any standard of honesty and decency known to the [illegible] political code of reasoning. [illegible] compare the firm of Fitch & Pickering in the newspaper way, to a lawyer who will take a fee from both sides of the case at the same time.

The various attitudes already assumed by the Post toward the coming new newspaper enterprise has constituted one cherished amusement. It brings to mind the return of Elba of the first Napoleon. A National journal, [illegible] hearing of the "Emperor's" movement exclaimed that the tyrant, &c., [illegible] A little more [illegible] paper modified its tone. As the "tyrant" approached Paris, the same paper congratulated its readers on [illegible] of the rightful ruler. In the Post of Wednesday there was an exclamatory "notice to hotel keepers," warning them to look out for the "dead beats" rapidly approaching like a second grasshopper plague. In Thursday's issue, there was no editorial mention of the subject except the following heading to a dispatch from Fremont, Nebraska—"The Pests Approaching." In last evening's Post there was a dispatch from North Platte, kindly entitled—"The Liberal Excursionists." We look for the paper this afternoon to contain an editorial explanatory of the importance of such an excursion and the immigration it [illegible] California. Give the newcomers a fair show—[illegible] at least.

[illegible] Real Estate.—Those rare [illegible] bargains in Oakland Real Estate offered by KELLY, [illegible] Also [illegible] lots [illegible] KELLY.

LOCAL PLATFORM IS QUESTION.

The public mind having somewhat recovered from the shock experienced by the somersault [illegible] words on the part of the State platform makers this year, it may not be out of place to suggest a plank or two for our local assessment to consider. We have already agreed that platform promises, on the part of men aspiring to office or public honors, are seldom binding or remembered, where self-interest is not personally involved. [illegible] the great majority of voters. For instance, how many people in this county know or care a continental about any personal merits of either State ticket, or of the candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor? Very few, abandon anything positively of those two persons and only because of the general party considerations. The views of the men will apply with more force to the platform upon which they propose to stand. In this connection the State platform of the Independents is the least entitled to respect of any yet presented to an enlightened people. Never was there such an attempt at double-dealing—such a stultification of circumstances, or what everyone may call it, as the singling out of San Francisco's private grievances without the exception that the balance of the people of the State will share them as a matter of course, as if San Francisco were the State, instead of a mighty fraction thereof. The bulk of the Independent platform is purely a local proclamation, to [illegible] of complaint. It should have come—if at all—before the county official aspirants of that place alone.

That brings us along to our pending county campaign in Alameda. Oakland has had a good deal to say about many her own wants was probably other will be some decided action in the matter, unless San Francisco should come [illegible] adopt a scheme of its policy that will comprehend this place as well as other leading towns in the State. Should it result in Oakland's investing in a way to stroke of Hen[illegible] however, a further issue of bonds and large increase of debt must follow. This fact is simply to be deplored, unless a better bargain can be made than we anticipate. On the other hand, of course, in the threat of a growing vast monopoly [illegible] is the face.

This brings us to one definite phase of the bond question, and what we desire to add by this article. Let this city and county solemnly resolve not to issue any other bonds for the purpose of any other improvement whatever. The combined indebtedness of the two governments, is little if any short of one million dollars, on which we are paying nearly one hundred thousand dollars interest yearly. When we stop to think what this enormous sum of interests alone, would build or create every year in the way of new improvements, there shall be none so stupid as not to see the advantage of special taxation for all purposes. For instance, whenever we want additional school buildings, let the money be raised at once—pay cash, get cheaper and better work, and be done with it. This system cannot should be carried into every department of government, and no additional [illegible] for [illegible] especially those in the legislative list, should allowed to be made to give bonds to the end of compelling them to keep their political pledges. Why would not this be a good way to head off bad legislation, anyhow? But do not let us have no more increase of the public debt or the interest bearing amount, in Oakland or Alameda county. Stop it short off. That is the plank of all planks first, last and all the time.

The Livermore Enterprise is of the opinion that business [illegible] improved [illegible] whether the Railroad Company would be justified in running an extra train between San Francisco and that place. We hope the Company will consider the suggestion, and act upon it as soon as they can well get round to it. They could, at least, greatly accommodate a large and interesting portion of this county by running an early morning train from Livermore to Niles junction, to connect with the train from San Jose, which arrives at Oakland about 9 o'clock a. m. This would enable the Livermore, Pleasanton and Sunol people to attend to court matters in Oakland, and any other business in this place or San Francisco, and return home the same day. This accommodation the Railroad Company could well arrange, so far as we can see. But, of course, a through train in addition would all greatly to the attractions to settlement all along the line east of Oakland, and as far as Livermore. San Leandro, San Lorenzo, Haywood, &c., are all equally interested, as it were, in additional transportation favors. But give Livermore an show, anyhow.

Somebody has written the Alta to the effect that in 1856, the head of the Democratic ticket was Val [illegible] an abolitionist in 1856. "That [illegible] the slavery candidates voted hard for the election of "John C. Fremont." This was when [illegible] drove a [illegible] over the mining trails, and peddled [illegible] through [illegible] took to the honest miners of Siskiyou. The correspondent is a humbug. The man who would not "all-use slavery" under such circumstances is no man at all. It is only additional evidence to the effect that we were not mistaken in the general good qualities of our man for the Democratic standard-bearer. Had Irwin ever been so unfortunate as to drive mules in the time for a livelihood in 1856, he would have joined the John Brown raid. The Alta correspondent threatens to follow up with other "antecedents" of Irwin. If the writer can't do better next time hold better ground idle. Irwin was good. [illegible] through the war which destroyed slavery, and those Republicans who don't want to vote for "[illegible]" [illegible] the head of the Democratic ticket.

This West Oakland Breeze has turned [illegible] Varden without knowing it. It [illegible] under the [illegible] as follows:

We [illegible] a new proposition concerning political management in this county. It is, that political parties be abolished by Congressional enactments.

That is just what Fitch and Swift are driving at. Take it all in their own hands. Run the government—State and National—in the back room of a newspaper. Give the mass of the people [illegible] Young America—go west. Jump off Long Wharf first into [illegible].

[illegible] rooms in the [illegible] Hall, [illegible] streets. There is no [illegible] in town, [illegible] of wines, liquors [illegible] [illegible] has just been painted.

FROM A SAGEBRUSH STANDPOINT.

The following extracts are from an editorial in the Virginia Enterprise, entitled "The Chaos of California." Some of the sharpest and most pointed things have already been quoted from that paper, respecting the present campaign in this State. It is a Republican paper, that at no time is able, as is ever a dish from its mountain height, is [illegible] sure and its defiance at everything that savors of lukewarmness on the subject of human liberty and of the [illegible] principles of the Republican masses. It is good to hear it occasionally. The following is in the humorous vein: "Never were things so mixed in the old State before, and two tickets, the principles which are behind the different organizations will then [illegible] the considerations which will be opened upon voters. The Republicans are making the bravest fight, while the Democracy have made the bravest nominations. We mean by this that they have deliberately put up a purely Chivalry ticket, ignoring at once all who were not Democrats; all foreigners who have not earned naturalization by fire; and all Catholics. It was a bold stroke to put them to place such a name upon their ticket as that of the reverend blackguard who is named by them for State Superintendent of Public Instruction; but it shows that they are fully determined that if they win this fight there shall be no misapprehension in regard to their character of their victory." ... "The Independents of California are making a canvass such as was never heard of before. They collect to prove that their principles are any better than those professed by either of the other great parties, but declare that they are better men personally, and divide their time between insisting upon this and in thanking God that they are not like other men. At the same time they hold up such names as those of Booth, Swift, Edgerton and Haymond as samples of their kind. It is a nice jumble all around, and as two are to drive it every day for dinner and breakfasts for two months to come, we might just as well make believe that we like it."

The somewhat erratic, but withal patriotic and very well known Gen. Frank P. Blair, has at last been relieved from bodily sufferings. In plain English, he is dead. The transfusion of blood could not bring him out of a paralytic condition, which the high-pressure life brought on several years ago. Death is a Godsend to such cases.

GRAND JURY REPORT.

The Board of Supervisors Censured and Manager of the County Infirmary Criticised.

The Grand Jury returned into Court this afternoon at two o'clock, presented their report and was discharged. Following is a summary of the report, which is quite a lengthy document.

The Grand Jury reported that they have examined the charges against all parties confined in the county jail, and all of all the charges and complaints against every other person presented.

That they had examined the jail, Infirmary, and all the various county offices, and the proceedings of the Board of Supervisors.

That they find the jail commodious and kept in good condition in all its departments, but find that it is under the keeping of but one man, day and night, without any provision for his relief, and recommend the employment of an assistant.

That they find the Recorder's office in good condition, its records well kept, but consider that it is not secure from fire or burglars, and recommend that iron shutters be constructed for all the windows.

That the books and papers and accounts of the Treasurer, Auditor, Tax Collector and Clerk are all properly kept and correct.

That the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction is in good condition and the books well kept, but recommend that as the Board [illegible] [illegible] the Census Marshal, [illegible] they justify the trustee in appointing himself to office as has been done in some instances.

That the Sheriff's office is in good condition and its accounts [illegible].

That an examination of the affairs of the Infirmary shows that the cost of maintaining the institution for the last quarter has been $3,150, and the cost of new buildings $1,621. The books of the institution were found to be correct. There seems to be a general complaint among the patients of the very poor manner in which the food provisions are cooked and served. The rooms are dark and close [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] patients are [illegible] [illegible] dark of the building [illegible] recommend that the dining room be enlarged [illegible] the present cook discharged and a better one employed. The jury censure the hospital authorities in relation to the manner in which skeletons are prepared for shipment upon the premises.

That among the proceedings of the Board of Supervisors, the jury were led to examine the contracts for building the Court House, and found the contractor has well performed his work and the building is completed. Particularly as to the front steps. The contract called for steps fifteen inches wide [illegible] and none were found. The jury consider that the architect has been negligent in his duty, and it was [illegible] that it was held by the Building Committee and Board of Supervisors, before accepting the building, to see that it was completed according to contract, and has thereby entirely done [illegible]. The construction of the Hall of Records, [illegible] supervisors and Recorder's rooms [illegible] faulty, and [illegible] there [illegible] supports are [illegible] [illegible] the lobby. We consider it a great error, the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the plastering [illegible] in the [illegible] of the walls. The room is cold and damp, and in consequence the walls are much discolored. The whole interior construction and arrangement of the building is, in our opinion, exceedingly and unnecessarily [illegible] except in [illegible] of [illegible] and the same time [illegible] expensive and extravagant for its purposes.

Seventeen indictments were found for the following offenses: Resisting an officer, 1; assault with a deadly weapon, 3; assault, 1; maintaining a nuisance, 1; robbery, [illegible] assault to murder, 2; house breaking and petit larceny, 1; battery, 1; misdemeanor, 1; burglary, 1; petit larceny, 1; escaping from prison, 1; grand larceny, 1; bigamy, 1. Two accusations of embezzlement one of perjury and one of assault were ignored, and the charges of grand larceny was referred to the next grand jury.

The Jury compliment the District Attorney for his attention to business and for assistance to the Jury in their labors.

REDUCTION IN GAS.

Important to Landlords and Gas Consumers.

SAFETY AND ECONOMY.

OFFICE OAKLAND GASLIGHT CO.,
February 1, 1876.

IN PURSUANCE OF THE POLICY followed by this Company since its formation, to lower the rates as rapidly as its wants, caused by the growth of the city, the price of gas will be reduced on the

1st Day of March Next

—TO—

$4 25 PER 1,000 CUBIC FEET.

Considering the value of coal and the cost of gas, and the distance between the places of consumption,

Oakland will be the most cheaply lighted city in the Union.

This price will leave no valid excuse for the use of any illuminant but Coal Gas in any part of the Company's mains, and a larger number of new consumers is expected.

The advantages to be reaped by the public from the change are—

1st.—A saving in the cost of one of the necessaries of life.

2d.—A decrease in the number of destructive fires caused by the use of the volatile distillates of Petroleum.

3d.—A saving of human life by substituting a stationary light for the lamps.

4th.—The most convenient and cleanest light brought within the means of the most economical household.

However small the house, the economy will be great. If fires are used, the risk of loss will be lessened.

This reduction cannot be profitable to the Company, but the accession of a sufficient number of new consumers to compensate for the lessening of the current receipts; and it will become the interest of all consumers of gas to introduce their neighbors to adopt this light, in order that further reductions may be made in the future.

The attention of consumers is also directed to the use of gas for heating and cooking. In Europe and the Eastern cities it has been adopted to a great extent, and its use is constantly extending.

It is to be hoped that this movement will be accepted in the spirit in which it is proposed, and which has always characterized the Company, viz:

That the Interests of Consumers and the Company are Identical.

The Company are constantly advised of all changes in modes of manufacture and distribution, and will at all times avail itself of any real improvements which will tend to improve quality and lessen price.

Superintendent.
